To find a cue for the King They need all the help they can get From one man...

Synopsis

Will the real wizard ABU NAWAS stand up please?

King ARASHID is sick while his body is all shivering cold. Apparently it has something to do with this wind that has been blowing around town. While the ministers hold an emergency meeting until late into the night, concluding they need the help of one genius wizard called Abu Nawas to catch that runaway wind and put it in a cage, so the king will get well.

They put out a call looking for him but only those are not the real Abu as they claimed show up. Seven day has gone by and the minister decides that he should take the matter into his own hand as he goes looking for the real Abu. Will he find him and how will he knows if he's indeed genuine?
