SYNOPSIS

Dragon Lee comes in grief to the city to investigate into the mysterious death of his brother. Preparing himself for the mission, he practices martial arts consistently. His favorite style is Jeet-Kwon-Do, a school of kung-fu initiated by the King of kung-fu, Bruce Lee.

His colleague while working in a restaurant is Johnnie Chan, a carefree kid nick named. The silver Snake as he enjoys playing the 'Drunken Monkey & Snake Fists' more than his work. The dynamite duo get along well with each other though they never stop challenging each other while disputing the merits of their styles.

HUNG Tak conspires to buy up a ranch in the suburban but Leng Chi and his daughter Meng Yi refrain from a deal. Now and then they are disturbed by the gang of Hung. Dragon and Johnnie are sympathetic with Leng. Hung gets madly furious and repeatedly attacks them all. Dragon bearing his missions in mind, constraints himself from further action against Hung and his gang.

By chance, Dragon discovers Hung is responsible for the murder of his brother. Crying for vengeance, he approaches Hung. Johnnie comes to his help at the critical moment when Dragon is fighting to survive. The duo is desperate but Hung is too strong to be beaten. They modify their styles and defeat Hung by luck.

However, hidden at the back of Hung is Boss Kwai who really heads the gang. The showdown between the Duo and Boss Kwai is inevitable.
