SYNOPSIS

The young WONG TIN is naughty and an addict of Kung-fu. Accidentally and for several times, he breaks the plans of gangsters who are in operation of criminal deeds. They are all annoyed with WONG and vow to clear him out before they would proceed for any future plans.

The BLOOD NINJA sends all their men for the mission but WONG escapes like an exorcist.

DARKIE TAO is renowned as the Hercules of the area around, but every time he comes into close encounter with WONG, he is being teased and WONG once and again escapes from him in the jungle, the restaurant, the market-place and even in the whore-house.

IRON-BEARD CHOW is another gangster who won't like to see WONG alive, but he almost loses his beard in an attempt to stab WONG to death.

The gangsters have no other choice then to join hands for the first time in their career to beat the naughty monkey. WONG is luckily rescued by a monk from the SHAOLIN TEMPLE who realizes from the fights that the young guy possesses great potential to become a great martial-artist.

The training is tough and WONG has never had any time of leisure.

The SHAOLIN monk trains him in the styles of the DRUNK FIST.

Now a totally different character, WONG farewells his master and seeks to fight the gangsters, not for revenge, but he finds it necessary for a martial-artist to perform his duty to the society ... to help to fight against evil and let the fellow citizens live peacefully.
