SYNOPSIS

A modern-day film telling of an ex-convict's attempt to go straight and being dragged back into the underworld.

Sung, who once worked for Lo a leading gang boss, decides to break free. But before he leaves, he tries to ensure his future safety by taking some photographs of Lo's illegal activities with which to bargain for his life in case Lo should try to drag him back. Lo is furious with Sung and determines to kill him and get the incriminating photos.

At the same time, Mei, a dance teacher and ex-model who was gang-raped by Lo and his men is desperate to get revenge for herself and tries to enlist Sung's help. Sung refuses, but suggest that his cousin, Yang, a totally honest man but an ex-fighter, might help.

Yang befriends Lung, who shelters Sung from Lo's men in his ancestor's house. Lung is a drunken widower who lives with his sister Hui Feng and his son. Yang and Hui Feng fall in love, but Yang gets caught up in the Lo/Sung vendetta and Hui Feng is killed by Lo's men. This so angers Yang that he determines to help Mei to slaughter Lo - he is an expert fighter who has not fought since his mother died whilst he was out fighting one night.

All along Lo has been trying to get the film and hounding Yang for it after killing Sung. Yang does not know where it is, but Lo doesn't believe him. In fact Kock, Lung's little son, has it concealed in a piggy bank. Sung is then killed. The story ends with Yang going back to look after the orphaned Kock.
