SYNOPSIS

Crocker and Joe are rivals in the underground kickboxing circuit. Crocker is not only a champion fighter himself, but he has an impressive stable of young fighters that he controls. Joe has been the best in the business, but Crocker becomes number one. Buster is one of Crocker's top fighters, but his loyalty wavers when Crocker orders him to throw a fight in order to exploit the betting odds.

Dave, John, Brownie, and Alan are brothers who control most of the illegal activities in the area: gambling, prostitution, loansharking, guns. Luke and his gang are their major rivals. Gang warfare breaks out and eventually, the brothers seem to gain the upper hand. The brothers are good friends with Buster and they encourage him to do well in his coming big match against Joe's superfighter, Blood. Buster is determined to win despite Crocker's instructions to lose.

Joe is threatened and he sends Jeff and his men to rape and kill the brothers' sister and Brownie's girlfriend in order to distract Buster's concentration. That proven a foolish plan because the rothers wipe out Jeff and his thugs, and although the law catches up with them, Buster is inspired to destroy Blood and stand on his own. Both Crocker and Joe end up losers each in his own way.
