SYNOPSIS

A young man, Tai Ko arrives in Hong Kong searching for the killers of his family.

He has to survive and becomes a cook at a small restaurant. Tai falls in love with the owner's daughter and befriends with a waiter there called Choi Chai.

One night he helps a stranger outside the restaurant who's being set about by gangsters. The man turns out to be a wealthy timber magnate, Wong Wai and he offers Tai a job as manager of his wood yard.

Tai finds out why his skills are needed when it becomes obvious that Wong has a lot of enemies, all of whom try by every means they can to get his timber business.

In spite of Tai's efforts, Wong finally loses everything. Tai and Choi try to help him get it back. They find out that the man behind Wong's downfall is Tin Kuo Wong and also that he is the man Tai came to Hong Kong to avenge for his families' death.

Tai finds out Tin at a casino and the fight begins. Tin tries to escape in a car. He doesn't realize that Choi and the girl Tai loves are hiding in the car. Neither does Wong know that they would be there when Tin's car went up in flames. He earlier planted a time bomb in it.

All three of them die in the car and Tai and Wong are arrested for murder.
