Joe defeats Johnny in order to get Costner, the top underground boxing promoter to sponsor him.

Johnny is determined to regain his supremacy in the ring. Meanwhile, the corrupted police and the gang are fighting for control of increased areas. In a final duel, Pete, the outlaw streetfighter is defeated by Andy, the only good cop left. The boxing racket is now left in Cosner's control.

At the same time, the two boxers are unaffected by the powerplays around them. In their last combat, Joe is overpowered by Johnny and the new champion emerges victorious over 2 opponents: Joe and his own drug dependency.
