Synopsis

Through the eyes of MARCO and his little brother MIKY, their quest for knowledge will take our young audiences through a series of adventures that will explain the mysteries of our daily encounters, which we as adults taken for granted. For example, why do mosquito bite make us feel itchy? And what does bees have anything to do with honey. Why do we blink? And what makes us feel hungry? How many taste buds would a cow have? Is there a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow?
