SYNOPSIS

At the turn of the Century in China, it is an era of chaos. Shanghai, a place where gangsters gather and commit evils of all kinds. Chao Xing and his clan, disguising as street show performers are actually gangsters.

Chao is well known for his superb kick techniques. He is nicknamed "Ghost-Kick Silver Fox" and his gang "The silver Fox". Apart from kungfu expertised, the gang members are cold-blooded killers.

Meanwhile, envious of "The silver Fox" is the "Shanghai Tigers" another gang led by Tong. They operate warehouses, casinos and martial arts schools training greenhorns. "The Silver Fox" makes trouble in dans of their enemies.

Fights, assassination, duels between the two gangs break out very often. The incidents give Chao good chance to know the various styles of Tong's men. He prepares for a decisive duel.

Chao wins, but with price. He loses most of his men. "The Silver Fox" is no longer in leading position in Shanghai.
