an Outstanding and Entertaining Film

Wu-dong and Shaolin,
the most significant
and powerful martial arts.

Snake Fist is deadliest, Buddhist Dragon is explosive, together they're unbeatable.

One imbibed Wu-dong acrobatics.
The other learnt Shaolin Kung-fu.
They combine, they're the magnificent duo.

SYNOPSIS

Dragon Lung learnt Shaolin kung-fu. Lee Tak imbibed Wu-dong acrobatics. When they combine, they're the magnificent duo.

In 1650, China is ruled by the Manchus who govern from Peking. In Central China, however, turmoil is brewing. Wu-dong a renowned kung-fu school is the breeding ground for revolutionary activities.

The Manchus assign Eagle Chung, a deadly assassin, a mission: to kill the revolutionaries one by one. In order to 'accomplish the target, Chung needs the enrollment records of Wu-dong. After the death of master Young, his daughter Pearl holds the records.

Chung fights his way to find out where the enrollment is. Pearl is kidnapped. But his plot is foiled by Lee Tak who rescues Pearl. While fleeing from Eagle Chung, Lee Tak teams up with Dragon Lung.

Chung reveals his identity and orders the local government to start a man hunt for Lee Tak and his compatriots.

Wu-dong's operation is going more complicated when they are betrayed by some of their own members. This results in a string of violent encounters until justice prevails. Lee Tak and Dragon Lung challenge mercilessly the Manchus.
