Synopsis

Young MARTY loves the open sea. It's in his blood just like his father who lost his life in the sea when Marty was just a baby. His mom has always worry that one day Marty will follow his father's footstep as she tries to keep him off the sea. But you can't keep a young boy down for long before he & his crews sail off again. Then, they encounter a thunderstorm as their ship capsized. Many years pass by since her mom has heard any news of him until one day a young man who looks exactly like him shows up at the dock. She calls out to her son but he refuses her claim. Could she have mistaken her own son for somebody else?
