SYNOPSIS

Mason is the head of a criminal empire in Old China. He orders his man, Titus, to kill Cheng and steal his gold in order to buy an influential position in the government which Titus will hold, but Mason will control! Cheng is killed and his son, Ethan, is left for dead, but survives with the help of the local undertaker, Master T.

Master T makes Ethan his apprentice and Ethan soon learns that his boss is actually a great master of kung fu. He is also a master of the underworld and is able to raise the zombie bodies of dead warriors to fight Ethan as training.

Duncan is a former student of Master T's and is now a master in his own right. As Mason's evil empire has begun to spread throughout the land, Duncan fights Mason and his men in a series of furious battles.

Ethan's quest to avenge his father's death is all consuming and is further fueled by his friendship with Lily who herself was wronged by Titus and his henchmen. Master T's unusual training methods begin to show great results, and when Ethan is deemed ready, Duncan comes to him and directs him to go after Titus while Duncan takes on Mason.

Ethan battles his way through Titus' gang and succeeds in killing Titu. Duncan meets big boss Mason in a final duel and kills him.
