SYNOPSIS

In the exciting early days of the China trade, Luther Blackstone and his men arrive on China's shores. They see infinite opportunities for their business venture: selling opium. As their business grows, the country sinks deeper into darkness. A missionary, Father Luke Daniels, tries all means necessary, peaceful and violent to put a stop to the evil business. He is aided by a young Buddhist warrior, Dragon and together they begin to stem the tide of darkness.

As Blackstone's men and local lackeys are eliminated, he senses defeat and resorts to his final defense: the supernatural. With the aid of a Chinese priest, he conjures up the warriors of the damned, but Luke Daniels righteousness proves superior in the end. Blackstone and his zombies are defeated and the evil curse is lifted from the land.

DARKNESS DESCENDS LIKE A CURTAIN OF DEATH AND MADNESS IS THE ONLY APPLAUSE.

IT'S EVERYONE'S DESTINY TO DIE. BUT HOW MUCH FEAR CAN YOU TAKE BEFORE YOU BEG FOR DEATH?
